

Redefining Program Evaluation

with NYCMER's Adult Programs Peer Group

Note: These resources have not been formally vetted by the New York City Museum Educators Roundtable and are provided as a resource. This is not an endorsement of any organization or project.

Racial Equity Tools

Designed to help groups assess, learn from, and document their racial equity work, with special attention to issues of power and privilege in the work, and in evaluation.

<https://www.racialequitytools.org/resources/evaluate>

Anti-Racism Evaluation Practices

A recording (1:15:45) of a panel discussion hosted by AaEA (Atlanta-area Evaluation Association) around Anti-Racism Evaluation Practices.

<https://youtu.be/bcC2JhLDH5o>

Equitable Evaluation Initiative

An women-run organization that has developed the Equitable Evaluation Framework™ and has a variety of great resources around it, including the Why the Equitable Evaluation Framework™.

<https://www.equitableeval.org/>

Evaluation as Protest

This read, written by Chris Lysy, shares how he used his evaluation skill set to frame his work as an ally to BIPOC people.

<https://freshspectrum.com/evaluation-as-protest/>

Evaluation Guiding Principles (American Evaluation Association) (2018)

This PDF explores the Evaluation Guiding Principles from the American Evaluation Association. Published in 2018, it highlights the core values of the AEA and shares how to implement those values in your evaluative practice.

<https://freshspectrum.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/Evaluation-Guiding-Principles-American-Evaluation-Association-2018.pdf>

Considerations for Conducting Evaluation Using a Cultural Responsive and Equity Lens.

See Evaluation Process (page 10) for example.

This resource, prepared by the Public Policy Associates, centers social justice and equity in how evaluation can address some of the pervasive issues that uphold oppressive and racist practices in public policy.

<https://publicpolicy.com/wp-content/uploads/2017/04/PPA-Culturally-Responsive-Lens.pdf>

Measurement of Museum Social Impact (MOMSI)

This project addresses the critical need of establishing best practices for measuring social impact within the museum field.

<https://museumsocialimpact.org/>

